

Tour #1

Tabitha - The Mekong Delta - From Phnom Penh to Saigon

6 days - Phnom Penh to Saigon

For 4-8 people US$900, for 8+ US$750 (full board except lunch on day 4)

Starting in the Cambodian capital, Phnom Penh, we go down river through the picturesque Mekong Delta and the heart of Indochina to bustling Saigon.

Day 1 Lunch time departure by boat from Phnom Penh. Afternoon arrival in Chau Doc. Visit the sacred Sam Mountain for sunset and spectacular views.

Day 2 Morning departure for Can Thao - the Delta's most important commercial and administrative centre. Afternoon at leisure to explore this friendly riverside town or check-out the interesting Mekong Delta Museum.

Day 3 Early morning boat ride to check out the nearby morning market; one of the busiest and most photogenic of the Delta's floating markets, before heading east to Cai Be.

Day 4 Morning visit to Cai Be's traditional floating market followed by a canoe tour of the former Vietcong jungle base at Xe Quit. Afternoon boat cruise through the maze of waterways. Discover the region's picturesque scenery, and the local cottage industries and handicraft manufacturing of the, still very traditional, villages. Overnight in Cai Be Town.

Day 5 Departure for Saigon and visit to the fascinating Vietcong tunnel system at Cu. Overnight in Saigon.

Day 6 Day tour of some of the City's sites including the bustling Chinatown district of Cholon, the War Museum, Jade Emperor Pagoda and Saigon's own Notre Dame Cathedral before evening departure.

Note: A 3 day, 2 night beach-stay extension to Vietnam's magnificent Phu Quoc island is available after your tour, including return flights from Saigon to Phu Quoc.

Highlights: Saigon, Cu Chi Tunnels, Mekong Delta, Floating markets, Mekong River Trip, Phnom Penh, local food.

Accommodation: hotel

Transport: minibus, boat, tuk-tuk, flight.

Fitness: easy

Suggestions: spend a few days on Vietnam's magnificent Phu Quoc Island after your tour.

All Points East

<http://www.allpointseast.com>